CELEBRATING SCOUTS BSA LAUNCH

We are very excited for the historic occasion that occurred on February 1, 2019! With both boys and girls in all of our programs, even more youth will benefit from our programs as well as the opportunity to participate in international Scouting adventures!

See Bryan on Scouting's blog post on nine ways to celebrate this historic occasion at <https://blog.scoutingmagazine.org/2019/02/01/scouts-bsa-launch-day/>.

BSA MEMBERS ATTEND INTERAMERICAN LEADERSHIP TRAINING #6

The Interamerican Leadership Training #6 was held in Quito, Ecuador, in December of 2018. Participants Soham Patel and Hannah Wheaton joined Scouts from around the Interamerican Region to hone their leadership skills.

We are eternally grateful for this opportunity to travel to Quito, Ecuador and learn among the best people we know.... We both have renewed our commitment to ourselves after this program and have several personal goals about how we can bring back what we learned at ILT and leave a legacy in the communities of which we are a part.

INTERNATIONAL INSIGHTS

GET INFO ABOUT PROTOCOLS, PROCEDURES, GUIDELINES AND MORE!

COUNCIL INTERNATIONAL EVENT GUIDELINE

If your council is planning to host international Scouts as participants at a local council event, the International Department will work with your event registrar to verify that contingent leaders and International Service Team (IST/staff) members are registered and approved by their own WOSM Scout association to attend your event.

This may seem like an unnecessary step in your event planning, but it can be crucial to your event's success. At a previous large-council event, only 85 percent of the contingent leaders and 78 percent of the IST that applied were approved by their Scout association. Contact the International Department at International@scouting.org to verify the registration and approval of your international Scouts.

WORLD SCOUT EMBLEM USAGE

Although the BSA is a member of the World Organization of the Scout Movement (WOSM), BSA members cannot use the World Scout emblem or World Scout banner without consulting the WOSM Scout Brand Manual and, in some cases, without obtaining the appropriate license. Read World Scout Emblem Usage to be sure you are using these trademarked symbols appropriately. Resources are also available on the International Department website.

INTERNATIONAL CAMP STAFF PROGRAM

The deadline to participate in the International Camp Staff Program was February 15, but if your council is still interested and hasn't applied yet, do not delay in applying now! Applications are still available by visiting www.scouting.org/International/applications. Need more reasons to participate? Check out previous International Camp Staff Program articles at www.scouting.org/International/newsletter to see the great benefits of participating in this program!

FIELD VISIT TO CAMP ESCUELA

International Commissioner Kent Clayburn, International Committee member Bill Wallace, and International Director Janine Halverson visited Camp Escuela in Panama on November 26, 2018, before the Interamerican Scout Conference there. They were hosted by Ivan Villareal, president of the Asociación Nacional de Scouts de Panamá, National Committee member Alberto Johnson, National Commissioner Jorge Medina, and their staff.

The United States Fund for International Scouting (USFIS) had funded two grant requests for the camp: one for construction of the Jim Hattrick Center and one for drilling a well and tank storage at the Jim Hattrick Center/Ecological Center.

The first grant was awarded in 2006, and the visitors were pleased to see that the property is still being used regularly. Multiple new buildings have been funded locally and built on the property, and the number of adult training and youth events held at Camp Escuela has increased. They are planning to develop additional activity spaces. The jungle is in constant need of being trimmed back.

It is interesting to note that Rafe Lucado of Panama, a 2018 Youth of the Americas awardee, was president of the country's national Scout organization when the initial USFIS grant was awarded. This is a testament to the long tenure of qualified leadership in the Interamerican Region.

2018 YOUTH OF THE AMERICAS

Congratulations to the recipients of the 2018 Youth of the Americas Award! They were honored at the Interamerican Scout Conference in Panama for their service. The only award presented by the Interamerican Scout Committee, it is for persons who have made an impact in Scouting at the international level. We congratulate José Antonio Gallegos (Mexico), Rafe Lucado (Panama), Brigitte Therivel (USA), and Bill Wallace (USA).

IAR JAMCAMP 2023

USA—SUMMIT BECHTEL FAMILY NATIONAL SCOUT RESERVE

Youth members of the BSA delegation to the 2018 Interamerican Region Conference in Panama last November developed, presented, and won the bid by the Boy Scouts of America for the 2023 Interamerican Region JamCam to be held at the Summit Bechtel Family National Scout Reserve near Beckley, West Virginia. Through a collaboration between the International Department and the Summit Development team, we were able to begin this journey into increased participation with world Scouting. Although the Summit is the location for the 2019 World Scout Jamboree (WSJ), our youth were clear when they explained during the bid that the Summit is an exceptional property that can support a multitude of elements for any event.

Considering that Canada, Mexico, and the United States are hosting the World Scout Jamboree in 2019 at the same location, you might ask, “How will JamCam be different from the WSJ?” First, a JamCam serves a broader age group of Scouts. The WSJ is for Scouts aged 14–18, and the JamCam is for those aged 11–18. We’d love to have those participating in the WSJ to come back as IST or contingent leaders! Additionally, the focus of a WSJ is on sharing culture and experiencing what Scouting has to offer, while the priority of the JamCam is to build relationships among Scouts in the Interamerican Region.

We look forward to continuing our partnership with the Summit Bechtel Reserve to provide a deep connection in culture that all Scouts in the Interamerican Region can share together. We are thrilled to have the opportunity of bringing our homes together at the 2023 JamCam. We’ll see you “at home”!

In the meantime, we encourage all our Scouting friends to support the IAR JamCam 2020 to be held in Brazil in January 2020. Registration for the BSA contingent will be going live very soon. See more information at:

UK CENTENARY CELEBRATION GILWELL PARK IS 100!

To celebrate the 100th anniversary, Scout Adventures at Gilwell Park is offering lots of experiences you might like to get involved in, ranging from Centenary Camps and free Heritage Trails to the Gilwell Reunion. The website at www.scoutadventures.org.uk/gilwell-100 offers more details.

To specifically celebrate the centenary of Wood Badge training at Gilwell Park, they will deliver the Original Wood Badge Experience in a fun format to engage existing Wood Badge holders. This will give a flavor of how it would have felt to attend one of the first Wood Badge courses ever held. The 1919-style training will bring to life many of the experiences those first participants would have enjoyed.

The courses, based on training documents from the early Wood Badge courses, will be held Tuesday through Friday, May 7–10, 2019, and Monday through Thursday, September 9–12, 2019. The first 12 places will be awarded and guaranteed to the highest bidders. A sealed, discreet bid will be submitted via the booking website. The remaining 12 places will be selected through a ballot entry, and the cost is £1,195 ($1,541) per person. All funds raised from both courses will go directly toward preserving the heritage and legacy of Gilwell Park.

If you are interested in the Wood Badge courses or booking for Reunion 2019, you can email gilwell100@scouts.org.uk with questions. You can also find out more about the Wood Badge courses by visiting www.scoutadventures.org.uk/gilwell-100/originalwoodbadgeexperience.

FAMILY SCOUTING SCOUTS BSA LAUNCH

After years of requests from families that wanted the iconic Boy Scout program for their daughters and sons, Scouts BSA was launched this February.

Using the same curriculum as the Boy Scout program, all youth in Scouts BSA take part in the same Scouting program, earn the same merit badges, and achieve the same ranks, including the prestigious Eagle Scout rank.

Importantly, Scouts BSA troops are single gender—all-boy or all-girl—because the BSA recognizes and celebrates that boys and girls develop differently, and there are times that single-gender learning is the most appropriate.

In 2018, more than 77,000 girls and their families said “Scout Me In” when we welcomed both boys and girls into our Cub Scout program. And this year, we’re proud to be able to offer young women the opportunity to join Scouts BSA.

To find a Scouts BSA troop near you, visit BeAScout.org—and know that troops are forming as we speak. So, if you don’t see a troop in your area, reach out to your local BSA council for additional information.

BRAZIL JAMCAM 2020

For more information on the BSA contingent to JamCam 2020, visit www.scouting.org/jamcam2020.

Say Hello to the JamCam 2020 Mascots!

Recently, the JamCam 2020 planning team announced the three JamCam mascots, who represent the diversity of our continent and region!

Amber is a fox from the family Canidae, with many species worldwide, including several that can be found in North America.

Guany is an iguana, a reptile from the family Iguanidae. The species of this genus can be found in large numbers in several parts of Central America and the Caribbean.

Tuko is a toucan, a bird from the family Ramphastida, composed of a large number of species found in South America.

The educational proposal of JamCam is based on basic concepts of the Scout movement, contributing to the formation of people who will be committed to the community and will assume their responsibilities as citizens.

JamCam will offer the opportunity for young people to have educational experiences with nature and to engage in dialogue with others in an environment of friendship and integration. It will be a space for informing and raising awareness for committed citizens in actions that will help build a better world.

POLAND EUROPEAN JAMBOREE 2020

News From the Host Team!

The European Jamboree's Educational Motto: ACT

Every Scout and guide possesses the potential to become a driver of social change. They are all invited to come to the jamboree and discover their power! Scouts and guides will inter-ACT with others of various cultures, and of various languages and countries. They will learn through adventures, eye-opening discussions, and inspiring workshops. They will discover their power and find out where their helping hands are needed. Scouts and guides will have a chance to ACT, acquiring new skills to make a change in society.

European Jamboree Unit Organization

The European Jamboree unit size is 36 young people and four adult leaders. The unit should be organized into nine patrols, with nine young people in each patrol. If a contingent does not have enough patrols to form a complete unit, it will be joined with patrols from other countries to form a unit. Each patrol in a combined unit must provide one adult leader. Please note that in the registration process, smaller (incomplete) patrols will not be accepted.

RECOGNITION AND AWARDS

FIND OUT HOW TO SHOW OFF ALL THE FUN OF INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING!

DISTINGUISHED EAGLE SCOUT RECEIVES PAPAL HONOR

Distinguished Eagle Scout Bray Barnes was honored to be notified by the Vatican that His Holiness, Pope Francis, has conferred the papal honor of Knight Commander, Pontifical Order of St. Gregory the Great.

Congratulations on the recent papal recognition to an Eagle Scout known far and wide as a dedicated servant leader.

The Pontifical Order of St. Gregory the Great was instituted in 1831 by Pope Gregory XVI. It is the fourth highest honor bestowed by the Holy See. The first two are reserved for Catholic heads of state. The third highest honor, the Order of Pope Pius IX, is presented to a layperson and is usually reserved for diplomats such as ambassadors.

The Order of St. Gregory the Great is bestowed on a layperson in recognition of distinguished service to the Church. Knight Commander is a higher honor within the pontifical order. Since its inception 188 years ago, fewer than 50 American Catholics have been so honored. Since the pope is the head of state (Vatican City State), such honors are comparable to any other head of state (kings or queens) conferring a knighthood.

Bray Barnes stated:

When I was advised by the Vatican that Pope Francis I conferred this papal honor on me, I was extremely humbled and very honored. My service to the Church has not been for the honors, but for betterment of those whom I serve (Catholic youth and Scouts) and for those most in need (as chair of the Diocese of Trenton Catholic Charities). I look at this honor as representative of the work of many, not just one person.

Usually, these honors are presented on behalf of the pope by the honoree's diocesan bishop. In my case, my name was presented to the pope by His Eminence, Kevin Cardinal Farrell, prefect of the Dicastery for the Laity, Family and Life. This is a cabinet level department of the Catholic Church, reporting directly to the pope. Therefore, I have asked Cardinal Farrell if he would make the presentation at the Vatican sometime later this year.

My Catholic faith is practiced by following the tenets and values of the Scout Oath and Scout Law.
